And [passed over all the people] the Jordan, and the king was established, and [kissed the king] Barzillai, and blessed him; and he returned to his people. And [passed over the king] into Gilgal, and Chimham passed over with him. And all the people of Judah caused him to pass over, and half the people of Israel. And they hung them in the sun in the mountain before [the] LORD. And they fell there the seven together. And they were put to death in days of harvest at first, at [the] beginning [ harvest of [the] barley]. And [ took Rizpah daughter of Aiah] sackcloth, and she strew a bed for herself upon the rock from [the] beginning [ harvest of [the] barley] until of which [time] [dripped upon them waters] from God from heaven. And she did not allow the birds of the heaven to rest upon them [by] day, nor the birds of the field [by] night. And it was reported to David all as much as [ did Rizpah daughter of Aiah concubine Saul]. And David went and took the bones of Saul, and the bones of Jonathan his son from the men of Jabish Gilead, of the ones stealing them from the square of Beth-shan, [ hanging them there] of the Philistines] in the day in which [ struck the

And he entombed the bones of Saul, and Jonathan his son, and the bones of the ones being exposed to the sun, in the land of Benjamin, in the side [of the hill], in the tomb of Kish his father. And they did all as much as [ gave charge the king]. And God heeded to the land after these [things]. And there was still war against the Philistines with Israel. And David went down and his servants with him, and they waged war with the Philistines; and David grew faint. And Ishbi of Nob, who was among the progeny of Rapha, and the weight of his spear [was] three hundred shekels scale-weight of brass, and he being girded with a truncheon, even considered to strike David. And [ helped him Abishai son of Zeruiah], and he struck the Philistine and killed him. Then [ swore by an oath the men of David], saying, You shall not come forth still with us into battle, that in no way [ should be extinguished the lamp of Israel]. And it came to pass after these [things] war [was] still.
Then there was still war with the Philistines in Nob. And [struck] Sibbechai the Hushathite, the ones assembling of the descendants of the Philistines in Nob. And [struck] Ellanan son of Jaareoregim the Beth-lehemite, Goliath the Gittite, and the wood of his spear was as [the beam of a loom one weaving. And there was still war in Gath. And there was a man of Madon, and the fingers of his hands, and the toes of his feet [were] six and six, twenty-four in number; and indeed he was born [to] Rapha. And he berated Israel, and [struck] him Jonathan son of Shimea brother of David].

and he gave charge to his son Solomon, saying, you shall be strong, and you shall be a man.

And you shall guard the watch of [the] LORD your God,

There shall not be lifted away to you a man from the throne of Israel.

And now you know what [ did to me Joab son ordered up the blood of war for peace, and put blood innocent on his belt, the one on his loin, and on his sandal, the one on his foot.

And you shall do according to your wisdom, and you shall not lead down his gray hair into Hades. And you shall have mercy, and they shall be at the eating of your table, for they shall be at the eating of your table, so they drew near to me in my fleeing from [the face of] an oath to him by [the] LORD, saying, I shall not put [to death you] by [the] broadsword. And you shall in no way acquit him, for [man you are], and you shall know what to do with him, and you shall lead down his gray hair with blood into Hades. And David slept with his fathers, and he was entombed in the city of David. And the days which he reigned over Israel [were] forty years. In the days which he reigned seven years, and in Jerusalem.

And behold, [there is] with you Shimei son of Gera, son of the Benjamite from Bahurim. And he cursed me [curse a grievous] in the day in which I went into Camps. And he swore by an oath to him by [the] LORD, saying, I shall not put [to death you] by [the] broadsword. And you shall in no way acquit him, for [man you are], and you shall know what to do with him, and David reigned over Israel [were] forty years. he reigned thirty and three years. And Solomon sat upon the throne of David his father. And [was prepared] exceedingly. And entered Adonijah son of Haggith to Bath-sheba, the mother of Solomon, and did obeisance to her. And she said, [in peace entering] [Are you]? And he said, Peace. And he said, My word to you. And she said to him, Speak! And he said to her, You know that to me was the kingdom, and upon me [set all Israel] their face for king. And [was turned the kingdom], and came to my brother; for by [the] LORD it was to him. And now [request one I ask] from you, you should not turn away your face. And [said to him Bath-sheba], Speak! And he said to her, Speak indeed to Solomon the king! for he will not turn away your face, so that he shall give me Abishag the Shunammite for wife. And Bath-sheba said, Well, I will speak for you to the king. And Bath-sheba entered to the king, Solomon to speak to him concerning Adonijah. And [rose up the king] to meet

And Solomon asked this thing. And [the] LORD said to him, Because you asked this thing from me, and you did not ask nor asked for [the] lives of your enemies; but you asked for yourself understanding to hear judgment; behold, for yourself understanding to hear judgment; behold,

I have done according to your word; behold, I give to you [heart an intelligent and wise]. And he struck Ijon, and Dan, and the house of Maachah, and all Cinneroth, unto all the land of Naphtali. And it came to pass when Baasha heard, that he stopped the building of Ramah, and he returned unto Tizrah. And king Asa exhortd all Judah with no exceptions. And Jehoshaphat said to him, Is there not here a prophet of the LORD, that we should seek anxiously the LORD par' autou kai aπεκρίθη εἰς τῶν παίδων του by him? And answered one of the servants of the βασιλέως Ἰσραήλ kai eipen οὐδε Ελισεαί uióς king of Israel, and said, [is] here Eliseai son ἵνα εἰπέτεν ὑδωρ επὶ χείρας Ηλίου struck Moab. And they fled in front of them; and they entered going and beating the cities of them; and they entered going and beating Moab. And [the cities they demolished, and every portion of land good] they filled it. And every spring of water they obstructed, and every tree good they threw down unto leaving behind the stones of the wall being demolished. And [encircled the slingers] and struck it.

And beheld the king of Moab that overpowered him the battle; and he took with himself seven hundred men unsheathing the broadsword to cut through the king of Edom; but they were not able. And he gave reign instead of him, and offered him as a whole burnt-offering upon the wall. And came to pass [repentance] in Israel. And they departed from him, and they returned to the land.

And [one of the sons of the prophets] yelled to Elisha, saying, Your servant, my husband died, and you know that your servant was... fearing the LORD. And the money-lender came to take [two sons] for servants to himself. And Elisha said to her, What should I do for you, announce it to me?
What is there to you in the house? And she said, There is not to your maidservant one [thing] in the house, only a vessel of olive oil in the house which I anoint with. And he said to her, deúro αίτησαι σεαυτή αγγεία ἐξοθεν παρὰ πάντων Go ask for yourself vessels from outside, from all your neighbors, [vessels empty], not a few. And There [is] not yet a vessel. And [stopped the olive oil]. And Elisha passed over into Shunem, and [there was] a woman [there] a great, and she took hold of him to eat bread. And it came to pass whenever it was fit for him to enter [that] he turned aside to eat bread. And [said the woman] to her husband, Behold indeed, I know that to this [is a holy], who travels continually. We should indeed make for him [upper room a small], and we should put for him there a bed, and a table, and a chair, and a lamp-stand. And it will be in his coming to us, that he shall turn aside there. And [came a day], and he entered there, and he turned aside into the upper room, and went to bed there. And he said to Gehazi to this Shunammite! And her servant, Call this Shunammite! And he called her, and she stood before him. And said to him, Say indeed to her, Behold, you startled all with this change of state, what shall we do for you?

Is there to you a word to say to the king, or to the ruler of the force? And she said, [in the midst of my people I dwell]. And he said to Gehazi, What must be done for her? And Gehazi said, That by all means a son is not to her, and her husband is old. And εἶπεν κάλεσον αὐτὴν καὶ ἐκάλεσεν αὐτὴν καὶ ἔστη he said, Call her! And he called her, and she stood

And Naaman came by horse and chariot, and he stood at the door of the house of Elisha. And Elisha sent to him a messenger, saying, In going, bathe in the Jordan seven times, and [shall return your flesh] to you, and you shall be cleansed. And Naaman was enraged, and went forth, and said, Behold, I said, he will come forth to me, and he shall stand and shall call in [the] name of [the] LORD his God, and shall place his hand upon the place, and shall cure the leper.

Are not [good] Abana and Phaphar rivers of Damascus over the Jordan, and all the waters of Israel? Shall I not go bathe in them, and be cleansed? And he turned aside, and went forth in rage.

And [approached his servants], and they said to him, If [a great word spoke the prophet] to you, would you not have done in so far as he said to you? Bathe and be cleansed! And Naaman went down, and he immersed in the Jordan seven times, according to the word οὐκ ἦσαν ἡμέρας τῶν βασιλείων βασιλέα Ἰσραήλ. οὐκ ἦσαν ἡμέρας τῶν βασιλείων βασιλέα Ἰουδα.

And it came to pass in the eighteenth year of Josiah, king of Judah, that Shaphan the son of Azaliah, son of Meshullam, the scribe of the house of the LORD, said unto the king, that the men that gave the money into the house of the LORD, gave it to the treasurers, and to the keepers. And they gave it to the workmen, that had the oversight of the house of the LORD, and they distributed it to the joiners, and to the stonecutters, and to the masons, and to buy timber and hewn stone, to repair the breaches of the house of God. Nevertheless there were officers of the house of king Jehoiada, and the officers of the house of the king, which did carry forth king Josiah's body, that they took the multitude out of the city, and spilt them from Jacob's descent: and he laid him in the burial place of the sons of David. And he made all Judah and Benjamin weep. And he took theasherah out of the house of the LORD, and all the vials that尼可ḥו (Hilkiah the priest, the high priest, the ruler of the house of God, and the officers of the house, and all the king's sons, spake unto Josiah king of Judah. And they spake unto him, after the word of God, which the priests of the house of the LORD had declared. And Josiah king of Judah did what was right in the sight of the LORD, and turned not away from any thing that he commanded by Moses. And the Jahvah spoke to the High Priest [Hilkiah], Shaphan the scribe, and the Levites, the commanders of the house of God: and they gave money out of that which was brought into the house of the God of Israel, and gave it to Hilkiah the priest, and to the Levites, and to the masons, and to the carpenters, to repair the house of the God of Israel. And it was so, when they came out of the house of the LORD, that they bare out money to Hilkiah the priest, to repair the house of the God of Israel. And the levites took it, to repair the house of the God of Israel. Now it came to pass, when the levites had given money out of the hands of Hilkiah, the high priest, to the masons, and to the carpenters, that they bought hewn stone, and timber, and dressed timber, to repair the breaches of the house of God, as long as there was workmen and workmen. And it came to pass, when the levites had given money to Hilkiah the priest, and to the Levites, the masons, and the carpenters, and to repair the house of God, that they spake to Jeshua the son of Jozadak the high priest, and to the priests, and to the Levites, saying, The house of our God shall lie waste, and the post that is set before it, and our sons and our daughters, and our wives and all the household of Judah and Jerusalem do carry the men of other lands, and spirits of the heathen, which are in the land, to burn incense in the high places, and to offer sacrifices in the valley of the son of Hinnom, and to commit fornication and to worship the works of their own hands. And it came to pass, when Hilkiah the priest brought out the money that was brought into the house of the Lord, which the Levites and the priests had kept, and when he gave it into the hand of the workmen, they that did the work of the house of the Lord, and gave it to the masons and to the carpenters, to buy hewn stone and timber to repair the breaches of the house of our God: that they might work with准确性. And the Levites took it to work upon the house of our God, and upon the house of David, the king. Now after these things Kay and Josiah king of Judah went up to Jerusalem, and they went up to Jerusalem with all the tribes of Israel, and the people of Judah, and the people of Benjamin, and the people of Ephraim, and the people of Manasseh, and the people of Issachar, and the people of Zebulun, with the multitude out of Israel, out of all the nations whither the Jahvah had driven them, to sacrifice unto the Lord God of Israel at Jerusalem. And all the congregation made a covenant to serve the Lord with all their heart, and with all their soul, with all their might, to keep the words of the covenant which were written in this book, doing them, and fearing the Lord their God. All the people of Israel, as well as the inhabitants of Judah, with one accord, gathered together unto the king at Jerusalem, and one spoke out all the words of this covenant which was written in this book. And the king commanded Hilkiah the high priest and the other priests, and the keepers of the treasury of the house of the Lord, saying, Go get you a roll, and write in it all the words of the covenant, which were written in this book, and which the Lord had spoken unto Moses in Horeb. And the Levites took the roll, and the priest Hilkiah, and shecaiah the scribe, and the Levites, the keepers of the treasury, then they went to Jerusalem the city of the house of the Lord, and came to the house of the Lord, and brought the roll to the high priest Hilkiah the son of Ahikam, the son of Amihud, the son of Ahimelchak, the son of Darda, the son of Samuel, the son of the prophet, and to the scribe Zechariah, the son of Bithya, and to the Levites, the keepers of the treasury, Shecaiah the son ofJudah, and Joash the son of Zadok the scribe. And the Levites took the roll, and brought it to them. And the Levites, the keepers of the charge, spread it out before the men of Israel, and they read it, and the men of Israel were afraid of the words of the covenant, which was written in this book. And the Levites, the keepers of the charge, gave the book to Hilkiah the priest, and to the other priests, and to the Levites, that were keepers of the charge, to bring it to Jerusalem, unto the house of the Lord. And they brought it to Jerusalem, and brought it to Hilkiah the priest, to the house of the Lord, at the gate of the tabernacle of the congregation. And Hilkiah the priest took the roll, and brought it into the treasure house of the house of the Lord, into the hands of the porter at the gate. And the porter took the roll, and put it in the treasurers house, in the room of the account book, where the silver and gold and vessels of the sanctuary were kept. And it came to pass that, when king Josiah had destroyed the abominations out of the land that were in Jerusalem, and in all Judah, and in all the places wherein he had carried them away, he cast away the idolatrous images, and brake of the brazen serpent that Moses had made; and he said, I will not build a temple to the Lord. Therefore he did build in the house of the Lord an altar, as it is written in the book of the law of Moses, which the Jahvah had commanded the Israelites, to serve the Lord. And in this altar he burned incense, as it is written in the law, and sacrificed peace offerings and thank offerings, and he placed them on the altar, and burned incense upon them, according to all that was written in the law. And king Josiah spake unto all the people in the language of the children of Israel, saying, The law, which the Lord commanded Moses, to all Israel, ye the children of Israel, and ye the inhabitants of Judah, and all the people that are within the land, from the one end of the land even unto the other end of the land, far off in the cities of Judah, shall hear all the words of this law, which is written in this book, for it containeth all the words of the covenant, which the Lord spake unto the children of Israel through Moses. And Josiah commanded all the people, saying, Ye the children of Israel, turn again unto the Lord your God, and walk in all the truth of his covenant, which he commanded you, and do not add unto his words, nor abridge from them. And for the altar of burnt offerings and for the place of burnt offerings, there was one altar of brass; the length of it was twenty cubits, and the width of it was ten cubits, and it was made like unto this altar which was before it. For the altar of burnt offerings toward the north of the temple of the Lord was one altar. And Josiah gave to the Porite and to the Levites, according to the commandment of the Lord, which he had commanded Moses. And all the Levites, with all Hilkiah, the chief priests, and the keepers of the charge, and the Levites, took up all the money that was brought into the house of the Lord, by the hand of all the people, and of the Levites, and all the keepers of the charge, and of the keepers of the porter, and of the keepers of the treasure. And they delivered it into the hand of the officers of the workmen, and they gave it to them that did the work, that they might repair the house of the Lord. And they gave it to the masons, and to the carpenters, and to the builders, and to the callers together of stones, and to buy timber and hewn stone, to repair the breaches of the house of the Lord. And they gave money out of the house of the Lord, and gave it to Hilkiah the priest, and to the Levites, and to the workmen, and to the masons, and to the carpenters, and they gave it, that they might do work with it. And they gave money out of the house of the Lord, and gave it to Hilkiah the priest, and to the Levites, and to the workmen, and to the masons, and to the carpenters, and they gave it, that they might do work with it. And they gave money out of the house of the Lord, and gave it to Hilkiah the priest, and to the Levites, and to the workmen, and to the masons, and to the carpenters, and they gave it, that they might do work with it. And they gave money out of the house of the Lord, and gave it to Hilkiah the priest, and to the Levites, and to the workmen, and to the masons, and to the carpenters, and they gave it, that they might do work with it. And they gave money out of the house of the Lord, and gave it to Hilkiah the priest, and to the Levites, and to the workmen, and to the masons, and to the carpenters, and they gave it, that they might do work with it. And they gave money out of the house of the Lord, and gave it to Hilkiah the priest, and to the Levites, and to the workmen, and to the masons, and to the carpenters, and they gave it, that they might do work with it.

And indeed the [ altar in Beth-el high], which made Jeroboam son of Nebat, who led Israel into sin, also indeed [ altar that high he tore down], and he broke its stones, and made [them] fine into dust, and incinerated the sacred grove. And Josiah turned and saw the tombs of the ones being there in the mount, and he sent and took the bones from out of the tombs, and incinerated [them] upon the altar, and defiled it, according to the saying of [the] LORD which [ spoke the man when Jeroboam stood near the altar in the holiday. 1 And the Philistines waged war against Israel; and they fell slain in mount Gilboa.

2 And the Philistines pursued the Israelites after Saul, and after his sons; and they fell slain in the mount of Gilboa.

3 And the Philistines pressed Saul and his sons; and they fell slain with the bowmen, and he was in miseries from the bows.

4 And Saul said to the one carrying his weapons, Unsheathe your broadsword, and stab me! lest at any time these uncircumcised mock me. But he feared exceedingly, and Saul took the broadsword, and fell upon it.

5 And every man of Israel fled, and Saul died, and he fell also himself upon his broadsword, and died. And Saul died, and three sons of his; and all his house died in one accord.

6 And beheld every man of Israel that Israel fled, and Saul died, and three sons of his; and all his house died in one accord: and beheld Saul and his sons, that they fell slain.

7 And he died also, and all Israel, and Saul and his sons, for they fell slain, and all his house.
Saul died and his sons, and they left their cities and fled. And it came to pass in the next day [came [the] Philistines] to despoil the slain, and they found Saul and his sons having fallen on mount Gilboa.

And they stripped him, and they carried away his head, and his weapons. And [sent the Philistines] to [the] land round about to announce good news in the houses of their idols, and [to] their people. And they put his weapons in [the] house of their god, and they pinned his head in the house of Dagon. And they heard all the ones dwelling in Jabesh Gilead, and they brought them into Jabesh, and they entombed their bones under the oak in Jabesh, and they fasted seven days.

And Saul died in his lawless deeds against [the] LORD, against the word of [the] LORD, διότι οὐκ εὑριστέον αὐτὸν καὶ ὅτι επηρώτησε ἐν because he did not keep it, and because he asked [by tη εγγαστριμύθῳ τοῦ εκζητήσαι καὶ οὐκ εξεζήτησεν εν κυρίῳ καὶ απέκτεινεν αὐτὸν καὶ inquire in [the] LORD; and he killed him, and ἐπέστρεψε τὴν βασιλείαν τῷ Δαυίδ υἱῷ Ιεσσαί he turned the kingdom to David son of Jesse.

David for king over Israel, according to the word κυρίου διὰ χειρὸς Σαμουήλ 4 καὶ επορεύθη of [the] LORD through [the] hand of Samuel. And [went ο βασιλεὺς Δαυίδ καὶ πας Ἰσραήλ εἰς Ἱερουσαλήμ king David and all Israel] into Jerusalem -- αὐτὴ Ἰεβούς καὶ εκεῖ οἱ Ἰεβουσαίοι οἱ

And he stood in the midst of the portion and, delivered it, and he struck the Philistines. And the LORD performed deliverance a great.

And David desired, Who will give me a drink of water from the one at the gate, and came to the rock to David, into the cave of Adullam; and the camp of the Philistines pitched in the valley of the giants. And David, and he said, Who will give me a drink of water from the well at Beth-lehem, which was at the gate, and they took it, and came to Beth-lehem, and they drew water from the well of Beth-lehem, oς ην εν τη πύλη και έλαβον και ήλθον προς Δαυίδ και ουκ ηθέλησε Δαυίδ του πιείν αυτό και David did not want David to drink it. And he gave it as a libation to the LORD, and he said, Kindness to me, O God, to do this thing. Shall [blood] of these men I drink] with their lives, [no]. For with their lives they brought it, and I do not want to drink it. These [things] [ did the three mighty men]. And

And they placed the ark upon a new wagon, from out of the house of Abinadab. And Uzza and his brethren led the wagon. And David and all Israel were playing before God with all their ability, and with songs, and with lutes, and with stringed instruments, and with tambourines, and with cymbals, and with trumpets. And they came unto the threshing-floor of Chidon. And Uzza stretched out his hand to hold down the ark, for he died there before God. And David was depressed, that the LORD cut a severance with Uzza.

And he called that place -- Severance of Oza until this day.

And David feared God in this day.

6. In this, O LORD, I have not chosen a man for leader over my people Israel. And I chose Jerusalem for my name there, and I chose David to be above the laon of Israel.

7. And it came upon the heart of David to build a house to the name of the LORD God of Israel. 8. And [the] LORD said to David my father, Because it was upon your heart to build a house to the name of my name, well you do. Except you shall not build to me a house, for your son who comes forth from out of your loin, he shall build the house to the name of the LORD God of Israel.

9. And [the] LORD established the word which he spoke. And I became instead of David my father, and I sit upon the throne of Israel, as [the] LORD said, and I built the house to the name of the LORD God of Israel. 10. And I put there the ark, in which [is] located the covenant of the LORD, which I ordained with Israel.

11. And [the] LORD established the altar of [the] LORD, before all the assembly of Israel, and he opened and spread out his hands. For Solomon made a platform of brass, and he put it in the midst of the temple -- five cubits wide, five cubits long, and three cubits high. And he stood on it, and he bent upon his knees before all the assembly of Israel, and he opened and spread out his hands into heaven.

And he said, O LORD God of Israel, there is no one like you, or whatever you have kept to your servant David my father, what you spoke to him, saying, There shall not fail from before your face a man sitting upon the throne of Israel, if only you should guard your sons their way to go by my law, as you went before me.

Let be trustworthy indeed your saying, which you spoke [to] your children, the ones going before you with all their heart, which you kept your servant David, my father, what you spoke to him, saying, There shall not fail to you a man, speaking before your sons the way to go by my law, as you went before me.

And now, O LORD the God of Israel, keep your servant David my father, what you spoke to him, saying, There shall not fail from before your face a man sitting upon [the] throne of Israel, if only you should guard your sons their way to go by my law, as you went before me.

And now, O LORD God of Israel, let be trustworthy indeed your saying, which you spoke [to] your children, the ones going before you with all their heart, which you kept your servant David, my father, what you spoke to him, saying, There shall not fail from before your face a man sitting upon the throne of Israel, if only you should guard your sons their way to go by my law, as you went before me.

And Conaniah, and Shemaiah, and Nethaneel his brother, and Hashabiah, and Jehiel, and Jozabad, rulers of the Levites, dedicated to the Levites for the passover -- [ sheep five thousand], and [ calves five hundred]. And [ was set up the ministration], and [ stood the priests] at their station, and the Levites in their divisions, according to the commandment of the king. And they sacrificed the passover. And [ poured the priests] the blood from out of their hand, and the Levites flayed. And they prepared the whole burnt-offering, to deliver them according to the division, according to the houses of [the] families to the sons of the people, to offer to the LORD, as it is written in [the] book of Moses. And so [it was] into the morning. And they roasted the passover in fire

And ουκ εγένετο φασέκ όμοιον αυτώ εν ισραήλ από there was not a passover likened to it in Israel from the days of Samuel the prophet; for all kings of Israel did not do the passover which Josiah did, and the priests, and the Levites, and all Judah and Israel, the ones being found, and the ones dwelling in Jerusalem, to the LORD. In the eighteenth year of the kingdom of Josiah [was observed this passover]. And after all these things which Josiah prepared for the house, Pharaoh Necho king of Egypt, against the king of [the] Assyrians at the river Euphrates, to wage war against him, at Carchemish. And went king Josiah to meet against him. And he sent to him messengers, saying, What [is it] to me and to you, O king of Judah? [not against you I come] today to make war, but only against the place of my war; and God told me to hasten. You take heed of the one with me, lest he ruin you. And [did not turn Josiah] to wage war against him. And he did not hearken concerning the words of Pharaoh Necho by [the] mouth of God. And he came to wage war in the plain of Megiddo. And

And [led him] his servants] from the chariot, and hauled him upon the [chariot second] which was his; and they led him to Jerusalem, and he died, and he was entombed with his fathers. And all Judah and Jerusalem mourned over Josiah. And Jeremiah lamented over Josiah. And [spoke all the rulers and the ones in control] a lamentation over Josiah [spoken] until today. And they appointed it as an order unto Israel, and behold, it is written in the lamentations. And [were the rest of [the] words of Josiah and his hope] being written in [the] law of [the] LORD. And his words, the first and the last, behold, they are written upon [the] scroll of [the] kings of Israel and Judah.

The words of Nehemiah son of Hachaliah. And it came to pass in the month of Chislev, [year [in the] twentieth], that I was in Susa, the place among the captives, of the ones having survived, from the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem.

And they said to me, The ones surviving from the captivity, ekei en tē chôra en pourniā μεγάλη και en oνειδισμώ και τα τείχη Ιερουσαλήμ great, and in scorning; and the walls of Jerusalem καθηρημένα και πύλαι αυτῆς ενεπρήσθησαν εν πυρί are being demolished, and its gates were burnt by fire.

And it came to pass in my hearing these words, εκάθισα και έκλαυσα και επένθησα ημέρας και I sat and wept and mourned [for] days, and ήμην νηστεύων και προσευχόμενος ενώπιον του I was fasting and praying before the θεοῦ του ουρανοῦ God of heaven. Till when shall you speak these [things] [ spirit by a talkative]

But you, rise early to [the] LORD Almighty beseeking [him]! If you are pure and true, [supplication he will heed your], and he will restore to you the habitation of righteousness. It will be then that as your first little, yet [will be] an untold [amount]. For ask [ generation [the] first], and trace according to [the] race of [the] fathers! The text is from Psalms, a collection of religious poems of the Hebrew Bible. It is a translation in English, providing a direct and natural reading of the original text in Hebrew.
I will enter in [the] might of [the] LORD. O LORD, you taught me, O God, from my youth; and until now I will mention your righteousness only. You taught me, O God, from my youth; and until now I should report your wonders. O Lord, whenever I should report your arm [to] generation every coming; of your might and of your righteousness, O God, unto the highests, what you did to me magnificence]. O God, who is likened to you? As much as you showed to me -- [afflictions many] and bad [things]; but turning, you restored life to me; and from out of the abysses of the earth you led me. You abounded to me. You comforted me; and from out of the abysses of the earth again you led me. For also I will make acknowledgment to you among peoples, O LORD; with an instrument for a psalm of your truth, O God. I shall strum to you with [the] harp, O holy one of Israel. [shall exult whenever I should strum to you, and my soul which you ransomed. But still also my tongue [all the] shall meditate upon your righteousness], whenever the ones seeking bad [things] should be ashamed and should feel remorse;
O God, give your righteousness to the king! and your poor with equity. Let the mountains peace to the people, and the hills righteousness! He shall judge the poor of the people, and shall deliver the sons of the needy, and shall humble the extortioner. And he shall continue as the sun, and before the moon [for] generations of generations. He shall come down as rain upon fleece, and as drops dripping upon the earth. [ shall rise in his days Righteousness], and a multitude of peace until of which [time] [ should be taken away the moon]. And he shall dominate from sea unto sea, and from rivers unto [the] ends of the inhabitable world. [ before him Ethiopia shall fall down], and his enemies [ dust shall lick]. Kings of Tarshish, and the islands [ gifts shall bring]. [The] kings of [the] Arabians and Sheba [with] gifts will come forward. And [ shall do obeisance to him
All the kings of the earth. All the nations shall serve him. For he rescued [the] poor from [the] mighty one, and [the] needy one in whom no helper existed. He shall spare [the] poor and needy; and [the] souls of [the] needy he shall deliver. And he shall live, and there shall be given to him from the gold of Arabia. And they shall pray for him always; [the] entire day they shall bless him. There will be a support on the earth upon [the] tops of the mountains. Their souls, and [valued name] he shall ransom; and [valued name] his [will be] before them. And they shall bless him. All the tribes of the earth. And being blessed [is] the name of his glory into the eons. May it be.

Psalm 83

1 "O God, who is likened to you? You should not keep quiet, nor soothe, O God.

2 For behold, your enemies sounded, and the ones detesting you lift [their] head. Against

5 should [be remembered the name of Israel] any longer. For

The proverbs of Solomon are to know wisdom and instruction; to understand also words of intelligence; and loosing enigmas; to comprehend also righteousness true.

But of the ones for hearing, [the] wise will be wiser, and the intelligent shall acquire. He shall comprehend also a parable and a dark matter; sayings also of [the] wise, and enigmas.

[The] beginning of wisdom [is] fear of [the] LORD, understanding and good to all the ones observing it. And piety to God [is the] beginning of perception. But wisdom and instruction [the] impious shall treat with contempt.

Hear, O son, [the] laws of your father! and you should not thrust away [the] rules of your mother; a crown for of favors you shall receive for your head, and a collar of gold around your neck.

O son, you should not have caused [ to wander you men impious], nor should you consent. If they should comfort you, saying, Come with us, partake in blood! for we should hide [ in...}

An oracle is upon the lips of a king; but in judgment, in no way should he be misled:

The crux [balance scale] is righteousness with God; and the works of evils are just:

The one doing evil is prepared to the throne of sovereignty.

The paths of life turn aside from evils;

The one receiving instruction among good things will be; and the one keeping reproofs shall be made wise.

The one giving heed to his own soul; and [the] one loving his life shall spare his mouth.

In the one who guards his own ways shall the path of life be among good [things] will be; and the one keeping reproofs shall be made wise.

Nests of wisdom are more preferred than gold; and nests of intelligence are more preferred than silver.

The light of life loves the LORD.

The rage of a king is a messenger of death; but a wise man will appease him.

The son of a king is as a cloud of late rain.

When the son of a king is among good [things] will be, and the one keeping reproofs shall be made wise.

The one who guards his own soul; and [the] one loving his life shall spare his mouth.

by wisdom concerning all [things] happening under the ουρανόν ὅτι περισπασμόν πονηρὸν ἐδωκεν ο θεός heaven. For [ distraction a wicked gave God] tοῖς υἱοῖς τῶν ανθρώπων τοῦ περισπάσθαι εν αὐτῶ the sons of men to be distracting to him.
εἴδον σύμπαντα τα ποιήματα τα πεποιημένα ὑπὸ I beheld all the actions, the ones being done under τὸν ἡλιον καὶ ἰδοὺ πάντα ματαιότης καὶ προαίρεσις the sun; and behold, all [was] folly and a resolve πνεύματος 15 + διεστραμμένον οὐ δυνῆσται of spirit. [The thing] being perverted is not able tου επικοσμηθήναι καὶ υστέρημα οὐ δυνῆσται to be embellished. And deficiency is not able αριθμηθήναι 16 + ελάλησα εγὼ εν καρδία μου τοῦ λέγειν to be counted. I spoke in my heart to say, ιδοῦ εγὼ εμεγαλύνθην καὶ προσέθηκα σοφίαν επί Behold, I was magnified, and was added wisdom over πάσιν οἱ εγένοντο ἐμπροσθέν μου εν Ιερουσαλήμ all who came before me in Jerusalem.
καὶ ἔδωκα καρδίαν μου του γνώναι σοφίαν καὶ And I give my heart to know wisdom and γνώσιν 17 + καὶ καρδία μου εἴδε πολλά σοφίαν καὶ knowledge. And my heart beheld much wisdom and γνώσιν παραβολάς καὶ επιστήμην ἑγὼν εγὼ ὅτι καὶ knowledge, parables, and higher knowledge. [ knew I For] even Indeed this is resolve of spirit. For in abundance of wisdom [is] abundance of knowledge; and the one adding knowledge shall add pain.

I said in my heart, Come now indeed, I will test you with gladness, and [therefore] know good! And behold, also even this [is] folly. To laughter, I said, Deviation. and to gladness, Why do you do this? And I surveyed if my heart would draw [with] wine my flesh; and my heart guided me in wisdom; and to hold upon gladness until I should see what kind [was] the good to the sons of men, which they shall do under the sun [numbered days of life [with] their]. I magnified my action; I built to myself houses; I planted my vineyards. I made to myself gardens and parks; and I planted in them a tree for every fruit.

I made to myself pools of waters to water by them [the] grove bursting forth rees. I acquired manservants, and maidservants; and native-born servants were born to me; and indeed a possession [herd and flock of a great] became to me above all the ones being before me in Jerusalem. I brought together to myself also indeed silver, and indeed gold, and prized possessions of kings and of the places. I prepared to myself [male] singers and [female] singers, and amusements of [the] sons of man; and male wine servers female wine servers. And I became magnified, and my wisdom was established to me. And all whatever [ asked for my eyes] was not at a distance from them. I did not detain my heart from any gladness, for my heart was gladdened in all my effort. And this was my portion of all my effort. And the things which I did by my hands, and on [the] effort in which I made an effort to do. And behold, all [things] [were] folly and a resolve of spirit, and there is no advantage under the sun. And I looked around to behold wisdom and deviation and folly; for who [is the] man who will come after counsel, with as much as they did it? And I beheld that there is an advantage [to] wisdom upon the folly, as the advantage of the light over the darkness.

The wise man -- his eyes [are] in folly, and the fool [in darkness goes]. And I knew, even indeed I, that [event one] shall meet with them. And I said in my heart, As the event of the fool and the wise man -- his eyes in darkness, even indeed to me it shall meet up with me; and why have I discerned wisdom? [And this] extra I said in my heart, because [the] fool from out of abundance speaks, for even indeed this [is] folly. For there is no remembrance of the wise man with the fool in the eon; in so far as already the [days coming] all [things] are forgotten; and how shall [die] the wise [man] with the fool? And I was detested with life; for evil [was] upon me -- the action of doing [a thing] under the sun.

For all [is] folly and a resolve of spirit.

And I detested all my effort which I made an effort under the sun. For I must leave it to the man coming after me. And who knows if he will be a wise man or a fool? And if he exercises authority in all my effort in which I made an effort, and in which I gained discernment under the sun. Even indeed this [is] folly. And I turned to dismiss my heart upon all effort in which I made an effort under the sun. For there is a man that made his effort in wisdom, and in knowledge, and in courage; and a man in whom did not make an effort -- in him he will give to him his portion. And indeed this is folly.

What happens to the man in all his effort, and in resolve of his heart in which he makes an effort under the sun? For in all his days [are] pains and rage of his distraction; and indeed in night [ does not go to bed heart]. And indeed this is folly.

There is not a good [thing] to man unless he eats and drinks, and shows his soul good in his effort. And indeed this I knew, that [ from the hand of God it is]. For who shall eat, and who shall drink besides him? For to the man, to the one good before his face, he gave wisdom, and knowledge, and gladness. And to the one sinning, he gave distraction to be added and to bring together; [so as] do not to the good [man] before [the] face of God. For even indeed this [is] folly and resolve of spirit.
1 + the time and season, [to] every day under the heaven. A season to give birth, and a season to die; and a season to plant, and a season to pull up what is planted;
and a season to kill, and a season to heal;
and a season to lament, and a season to dance;
and a season to build, and a season to pull down;
and a season to weep, and a season to laugh;
and a season to embrace, and a season to be far from embrace;
and a season to seek, and a season to lose;
and a season to keep, and a season to cast out;
and a season to be quiet, and a season to speak;
and a season to love, and a season to hate;
and a season of war, and a season of peace.
What advantage is there in the one who works?
I saw a way which God gave to the sons of man to be distracting and indeed with the

these two which not yet was born, which knew not all the [action evil] being done under tον ἴλιον καὶ εἶδον εγὼ σύμπαντα τὸν μόχθον καὶ the sun. And I beheld all the effort, and sύμπασαν ανδρίαν το ποιήματος ὅτι αὐτὸ ἰλίς all courage of action; for the same zeal ανδρός απὸ τοῦ εταίρου αὐτοῦ καὶ γε τοῦ of man [is] from his companion. And indeed this ματαιότης καὶ προαιρέσεις πνεύματος [folly and resolve] of spirit. The fool περιέλαβεν τὰς χεῖρας αὐτοῦ καὶ ἔφαγε embraces his hands, and eats τὰς σάρκας ἀναπάυσεως ἀναπάυσεως πνεύματος his flesh. Better [full] of rest, than [full two handfuls] of trouble καὶ προαιρέσεις πνεύματος καὶ ἐπέστρεψα εγὼ καὶ and resolve of spirit. And I turned, and εἶδον ματαιότητα ὑπὸ τὸν ἴλιον ἐστίν εἰς καὶ I saw folly under the sun. There is one [alone], and ουκ ἐστὶ δεύτερος καὶ γε νῦός καὶ γε αδελφός there is not a second; and indeed, [son nor indeed a brother μόχθῳ αὐτοῦ καὶ γε ὁφθαλμός αὐτοῦ οὐκ his effort; and indeed his eye is not εμπίμπλαται πλούτου καὶ τίνι εγὼ μοχθώ καὶ satisfied of riches; and [saying], Why do I make an effort, and στερίσκω τὴν ψυχὴν μου απὸ αγαθωσύνης καὶ γε deprive my soul of goodness? And indeed, tοῦτο ματαιότης καὶ περισπασμὸς πονηρός ἐστίν this [folly and distraction an evil is]. αγαθοί οἱ δύο υπέρ τον ἑνα οίς ἐστὶν αὐτοῖς Better the two than the one, in which there is to them μισθός αγαθός ἐν μόχθῳ αὐτῶν ὅτι εὰν πέσωσιν [wage a good] in their effort. For if they should fall, ο εἰς ἐγερεί τον μέτοχον αὐτοῦ καὶ ουαὶ αὐτῶ τῷ the one shall raise his partner. But woe to him, to the ἐν τούτῳ δεύτερος τού εγείραι one, whenever he should fall and there should not be a second to raise him. And if [should go to bed two] and heat αυτοίς καὶ ο εἰς ποις θερμανθῇ καὶ εάν αυτοῦ καὶ το σπαρτίον το ἐντρίτον ου ταχέως him. And the [cord three-stranded] shall not be quickly απορραγήσεται αγαθός παις πένης καὶ σοφός ripped apart. Better [child a needy and wise], υπέρ βασιλέα πρεσβύτερον και άφρονα ος ουκ than [king an older and foolish] who does not know to take heed any longer. For from out of [the] house of the δεσμίων εξελεύσεται του βασιλεύσαι ὁτι και γε εν prisoners he shall come forth to reign, for even indeed in his kingdom he was needy. I beheld all βασιλεία αυτοῦ εγενήθη πένης εἰδον σύμπαντας his kingdom was needy. I beheld all of the living, of the ones walking under the sun, μετά του νεανίσκου του δευτέρου ος στήσεται αντ’ with the young of the second [generation] who will stand in place of him. There is no limit to all [the] people, τοις πάσιν όσοι εγένοντο ἐμπροσθεν αυτῶν καὶ γε to all as many as was before them; and indeed, the last shall not be glad in himself. For even γε τοῦτο ματαιότης και προαίρεσις πνεύματος indeed this [is] folly and resolve of spirit.

φύλαξον τον πόδα σου εν ω τὸν θεοῦ καὶ εγγύς του ουκ εἰσίν εἰδότες Guard your foot whenever you should go into [the] house of God and [are] near to hear! [be above [the] gift of the αφρόνων θυσία σου ὅτι ουκ εἰσίν εἰδότες fools sacrifice [Let your], for they are not knowing to do you heart let not bring forth a word before the presence of God! For God is in the heaven upward, and you are upon the earth; Upon this let be few! For comes through a dream in a multitude of testing; and the voice of a fool in a multitude of words. As when you vow a vow to God, you should not pass time to render it, for is not his will in foolish vows. You then, as much as you should have vowed, render! Better to not make a vow for you, than for you to make a vow and not repay. You should not give your mouth. to lead into sin your flesh; and you should not say before the presence of God that, It is in ignorance; lest should be provoked to anger God at your voice, and should utterly destroy the things made by your hands. For in a multitude of dreams, and follies, and words many, that you should fear. If of the needy and seizure by lawsuit and judicial right you should see] in a place, you should not wonder over the thing; for a high one shall guard], and high ones over them.

And [the] abundance of [the] earth [for all is]; [even] a king [needs]

There is a wickedness which I beheld under the sun, and it is abundant with men. A man to whom [ shall give wealth, and possessions, and glory, and there is nothing lacking to his soul from all [things] which he shall desire; yet [ shall not give authority to him God] to eat from it; for a man, a stranger, shall eat it. And this [ folly and sickness an evil is].

1 + ἐστι πονηρία ἡν εἴδον υπό τον ἡλίον και

There is a wickedness which I beheld under the sun, and it is abundant with men. A man to whom [ shall give wealth, and possessions, and glory, and there is nothing lacking to his soul from all [things] which he shall desire; yet [ shall not give authority to him God] to eat from it; for a man, a stranger, shall eat it. And this [ folly and sickness an evil is].

2 + ανήρ ὁ δώσει τοις ἀνθρώποις υπό τον ἡλίον και υπάρχοντα και δόξαν και

A man to whom [ shall give wealth, and possessions, and glory, and there is nothing lacking to his soul from all [things] which he shall desire; yet [ shall not give authority to him God] to eat from it; for a man, a stranger, shall eat it. And this [ folly and sickness an evil is].

3 + εάν γεννήσῃ ανήρ εκατόν και ἐτη πολλὰ ζήσεται

If [ should engender a man] a hundred, and [ years many shall live], and [ abundant however] will be the days of his years, that The soul of him shall not be filled up from goodness, and indeed [no burial there be] for him. I said, Better for him the miscarriage. For in folly he came, and in darkness he goes, and in darkness his name shall be covered.

And indeed [the sun he knew not], and [knows not] rest this one over this [other one]. And if he lived a thousand years of returns, and [goodness he knows not], is it not unto [place one] all shall go? Every effort of man [is] for his mouth, and indeed the soul shall not be filled. For what advantage to the wise over the fool, for the needy knows to go in front of life? Better vision of eyes, than going in life; for indeed this [is] folly and resolve of spirit. If anything became, already [has been called] and it is known what man is, and he is not able to judge against the one stronger than he.

For there are [matters many] multiplying folly. What extra [is to] man? For who knows what [is] good [to] man in life, [during the] number of [the] life of [the] days of his folly? And he spent them as a shadow; for who shall report to man what will be οπίσω αυτού υπό τον ήλιον after him under the sun?

As the just, and the wise, even their works are in [the] hand of God. Indeed even love, indeed even hatred, there is no [ knowing man] all the [things] before event [ there is] one. They are in [the] hand of God.

Indeed even love, indeed even hatred, their works are in [the] hand of God.

Even all the [things] before the man knowing all the things.

Even all the [things]; indeed even event [ there is] one.

This evil [is] in all event [ there is] one.

And indeed the heart of the sons of man are filled with evil; and madness in their heart.

And indeed the one sinning; as the one swearing by an oath, as the one sacrificing and to the one not sacrificing; as [is] the good, as [is] the one swearing by an oath, as the one sacrificing and to the one not sacrificing; as [is] the good,

Exodus 36:4-39

The Israelites and their leaders, led by Moses and Aaron, had been given instructions by the Lord to build a tabernacle as a dwelling place for the presence of the Lord. The task was daunting, but the people were united in their effort, and the tabernacle was completed according to the Lord's specifications.

The tabernacle was to be a portable sanctuary where the Lord's presence would dwell among the Israelites. It was a place of assembly, worship, and teaching, and it contained various sacred furnishings and items essential for the worship of God. The tabernacle was a model of the future temple in Jerusalem, where the Ark of the Covenant would be housed.

The construction of the tabernacle was a test of faith and obedience for the Israelites. They were required to use materials and skilled labor, with the guidance of the Lord and the help of the Levites.

The tabernacle contained the Ark of the Covenant, the holy place, and the Most Holy Place. It was designed with specific dimensions and materials, and it was equipped with various sacred vessels and items, including the golden altar, the table of showbread, and the bronze laver.

The tabernacle was a type of the earthly city of Jerusalem, where the temple would be built, and it was a representation of the celestial Jerusalem, where the New Covenant would be established. The tabernacle served as a reminder of God's presence and the need for a cleansing of sin through the blood of the sacrificial animals.

As the Israelites gathered to build the tabernacle, they were reminded of their faith and commitment to the Lord. The tabernacle was not just a physical structure; it was a symbol of the spiritual realm where the Lord's presence dwelled.

In conclusion, the tabernacle was a significant aspect of Israel's history, and its construction was a testament to the Lord's faithfulness and the Israelites' obedience. It served as a reminder of the need for a personal relationship with God and the importance of maintaining a lifestyle that pleased Him.

23 - Isaiah
Woe to Ariel, which dieth against Judah, which was to David a burden of war.

Gather together year by year, and publish the name thereof to all the nations round about.

For I will squeeze Ariel, and she shall be a heap of ruins, and I will encircle it with a siege mound, and I will throw up against it a blast mound, and I will set around it towers.

And it shall be as the voice of a great multitude, as the voice of the mountains of a confused tumult, as the voice of the waves of the sea, so shall the voice of the Lord be.

And as prophesiers go round about, and as one goeth and sékón超市 remaineth, and the multitude of the assăvóstes shall not be gathered together.

For thus saith the Lord, the king of Hosts: As I have imagined, so will it be; and as I have declared, so shall it be.

For the Lord will execute judgment for the land; for it is his pleasure that there should be vanity in it.

The noise thereof shall be as the noise of a herd of oxen, and it shall be as the noise of waters, so that he cannot hear the cry of the flock, or the voice of his cattle.

And they shall all be consumed together, as by the consuming fire, and as the thistle is consumed by the fire.

And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the nations, in the midst of many peoples, as a lion among the beasts of the forest, as a young lion among flocks of sheep, which devoureth the prey, and taketh his fill of blood, and drinketh forth the spoils.

Behold, I do new [things] which now shall arise, and you all shall know them. And I will make [in the wilderness a way], and [in the waterless [place] rivers].

Nor you acquired for me a sacrifice of silver, nor the fat of your sacrifices I desired. But in your sins you stood in front of me, and in your iniquities. I am, I am he, the one wiping away your lawless deeds because of me, and your sins in no way shall I remember.

But you, remember! And let us plead together! You tell of your lawless deeds first! that you should be justified. Your fathers first sinned, and your rulers acted lawlessly against me. And [ defiled the rulers] my holy [things]. and I gave Jacob up to be destroyed, and Israel for scouring.

But now hear! O Jacob my child, and O Israel, whom I chose. Thus says [the] LORD God, the one creating you, and shaping you from [the] belly. You shall still be helped. Do not fear! [ my servant O Jacob], and the one being loved, Israel whom I chose. For I will give water for thirst to the ones going in a waterless [place]. I will place my spirit upon your seed, and my blessings upon your children. And they shall rise up as [ in the midst +% of water] and as willows upon [flowing by water].

from out of the mountain, and from out of the [country] to [the] south, bringing whole burnt-offerings, and sacrifices, and incenses, καὶ μαννά καὶ λίβανον φέροντες αἴνεσιν εἰς οἶκον of Jerusalem in the day of the Sabbaths; then I will kindle a fire in her gates; and it shall devour [the] plazas of Jerusalem, and it shall not be extinguished.

1 + o λόγος o γενόμενος προς Ιερεμίαν παρά κυρίου
The word coming to Jeremiah from [the] LORD, λέγων 2 + ανάστηθι και κατάβηθι εἰς οἶκον του saying, Rise up and go down unto [the] house of the κεραμέως καὶ εἰκι ακούση τους λόγους μου 3 + και κατέβην εἰς τον οἶκον του κεραμέως καὶ ιδού I went down unto the house of the potter. And behold, αυτός εποίεί έργον επί των λίθων 4 + και διέπεσε το he was making a work upon the stones. And [failed the πάλιν εποίησεν αυτό αγγείον έτερον καθώς ήρεσεν again he made it [vessel [into] another] as was pleasing εναντίον αυτοῦ του ποιήσαι 5 + και εγένετο λόγος before him to make. And came to pass [the] word κυρίου προς με λέγων 6 + ει καθώς o κεραμεύς ούτος of [the] LORD to me, saying, Shall as this potter ου δυνήσομαι του ποιήσαι υμᾶς οίκος Ισραήλ λέγει I not be able to make you, O house of Israel, says κύριος ιδού ως o πηλός εν τη χειρί του κεραμέως [the] LORD? Behold, as the mortar in the hand of the potter, υμείς εστέ εν ταις χερσί μου οίκος Ισραήλ 7 + πέρας [so] are you in my hands, O house of Israel. At end λαλήσω επ` έθνος η επί βασιλείαν του εξάραι αυτούς I shall speak unto a nation or unto a kingdom to lift them away, καὶ του απολλύειν 8 + και επιστρέψη το έθνος εκείνο and to destroy them. But should [turn that nation] από των κακών αυτών και μετανοήσω περί των from their evils, then I shall change my mind concerning the κακών οι ελογισάμην του ποιήσαι αυτοίς 9 + και bad [things] which I devised to do to them. And πέρας λαλήσω επί έθνος και επί βασιλείαν at end I shall speak unto a nation and unto a kingdom tου ανοικοδομείσθαι και του καταφυτεύεσθαι 10 + και to rebuild and to plant, and ποιήσωσι τα πονηρά εναντίον μου του μη ακούειν they do the wicked [things] before me, to not hear της φωνής μου και μετανοήσω περί των αγαθών ων my voice, then I will change my mind concerning the good [things] which I spoke to do for them. And now say to the men of Judah, and to the ones dwelling in Jerusalem! Thus says [the] LORD, Behold, I shape evil, and I devise against you a device!

Let [ turn indeed each] from [ way his]

the practices and the ways!

And they said, We will be manly, for after our turning, we shall go and each [ the [things] pleasing heart] his evil shall do]. On account of this, Thus says [the] LORD, Ask indeed among [the] nations! who heard such causes for shuddering which [ did exceedingly virgin Israel]? Shall [ fail from [the] rock nipples], or snow from the Lebanon range? Will [ turn aside water forcibly by a wind being brought]? For [ forgot me my people].

[ in vain They burned incense], and they shall weaken in their ways -- [ roads eternal]; to mount roads not having a way for going; to order up their land for extinction, and [ hissing the everlasting].

All the ones traveling through it shall be amazed, and shall shake their head. As [ wind καύσωνα διασπερώ αυτούς κατά πρόσωπον a burning] I will scatter them in front εχθρών αυτών νότον και μὴ πρόσωπον δείξω αυτούς of their enemies. [The] back and not [the] front I will show to them εν ημέραν απολείπησιν αυτών 18 + και εἶπαν δεῦτε in a day of their destruction. And they said, Come, λογισώμεθα εἰπή Iερεμίαν λογισμόν ὧτι οὐκ we should devise against Jeremiah a device, for [shall not him in the tongue, and we shall not hear all ρήματα κατὰ τῆς ψυχῆς μου μνήσθητι εστηκότος μου things against my soul. Remember my standing κατὰ πρόσωπον σου τοῦ λαλῆσαι υπὲρ αυτῶν αγαθά in front of you! to speak [ for them good], to turn your rage from them. On account of war! Let there become a cry in their houses! επάξεις εἰς αὐτοὺς λῃστὰς ἀφνῶ ότι ενεχείρησαν You shall bring upon them robbers suddenly; for they took in hand λόγον εἰς σύλληψιν μου καὶ παγίδας ἐκρυψαν εἰς a word to seize me, and [ snares they hid] against

And you, O LORD, knew all together their plan against me for death. You should not acquit their iniquities; and [ their sins from in front of you you should not wipe away]. Let [ come their weakness] before you! In [the] time of your rage deal with them!

Then [the] LORD said to me, Proceed and acquire a pitcher! one being shaped of earthenware from the elders of the people and of the priests. And you shall go forth into the cemetery of [the] sons of Hinnom, which is at the thresholds of [the] gate of Charsith, and read there all the words! which ever I shall speak to you.

And you shall say to them, Hear the word of [the] LORD, O kings of Judah, and O ones dwelling Jerusalem! Thus says [the] LORD of the forces, the God of Israel, Behold, I bring upon this place evils, so that all hearing them, [ shall resound his ears].

Because they abandoned me, and separated from this place; and they burned incense in it to strange gods who [ did not know they] and before their enemies, and by [the] hands of the ones this city into extinction, and for a hissing.

All coming upon it shall look downcast, and I will break this people, and this city,

The word coming from [the] LORD to Jeremiah, when [sent to him king Zedekiah] the LORD! for [the] king of Babylon has set by us; if [the] LORD will do according to all his wonders, and [the king] shall go forth from us. And you shall say to Zedekiah, Thus says [the] LORD, the God of Israel, Behold, I turn back the weapons of warfare which [are] in your hands, and by which you wage war with them against the Chaldeans, the ones hemming you [in] outside the wall; and I will gather them into the midst of this city. And I shall wage war myself against you with a hand being stretched out, and with [arm a fortified] rage and [anger great]. And I will strike all the ones dwelling in this city, men and the cattle. By [death a great] even they shall die. And after these [things], thus says [the] LORD, I will deliver up Zedekiah king of Judah, and καὶ τοὺς παίδας αυτοῦ καὶ τὸν λαόν τον καταλείφθέντα his servants, and the people, the one surviving of life, and the way of death.

On account of this, thus said [the LORD], In granting, [shall be delivered up this city] into the hands of Chaldeans, and into [the] hands of [the] king of Babylon, and [shall come the Chaldeans] waging war against this city; and they shall burn this city by fire, and shall incinerate the houses in which they burned incense upon their roofs to Baal, and offered libations to other gods, to greatly embitter me. For [were the sons of Israel and the sons of Judah] alone doing the wicked [thing] in front of their eyes from their youth. [The] sons of Israel were greatly embittering me in the works of their hands, says [the] LORD. For [for my anger and for my rage was this city] from which day they built it, and unto this day, to rid it from my face; because of all the wickedness of the sons of Israel and Judah, which they did to embitter me, they, and their kings, and their rulers, and their priests, and their prophets, [the] men of Judah, and the ones...

And I will ordain a covenant with them, an everlasting covenant, which in no way shall I turn behind them. And I will put my fear in their heart, to not separate them from me. And I will visit them to do good to them. And I will plant them in this land in trust, even with all my heart, and with all my soul. For thus said [the] LORD, As I brought upon this people all [bad things] great these, so I will bring upon them all the good [things] which I spoke unto them. And there shall be acquired still fields in the land, in which you say, It is untrodden of men and beast; and they were delivered up into [the] hands of Chaldeans. And they shall acquire fields with silver; and you shall write in a scroll, and shall set a seal upon [it], and shall take testimony of witnesses in [the] land of Benjamin, and round about Jerusalem, and in [the] cities of Judah, and in [the] cities of the mountain, and in [the] cities of the Sephela, and in [the] cities of the Negev. those days Judah shall be delivered, and Jerusalem shall dwell securely. And this is the name ο καλέσουσιν αυτώ κύριος δίκαιος ημών 17 + ότι ούτω they shall call him, [The] LORD our Justice. For thus ρήμα κυρίου προς Ιερεμίαν λεγον 20 + ούτω λέγει [the] word of [the] LORD to Jeremiah, saying, Thus says κύριος εάν ηθετημένην ποιήσητε την διαθήκην μου [the] LORD, If [as being annulled you should make my covenant],

1 + The word coming to Jeremiah from [the] LORD and Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and all his encamped army, and to all the kingdoms of the earth, to the ones under the dominion of his hand, all the peoples waged war against Jerusalem, and against his captivity, and I shall show mercy on them.

2 + Thus said [the] LORD, the God of Israel, Proceed to Zedekiah king of Judah! and you shall say to him, Thus said [the] LORD, In delivering up, I shall deliver up this city into [the] hands of Babylon, and he shall seize it, and shall burn it with fire. And you in no way shall be delivered from out of his hand; and you shall be seized, and into his hands you shall be given; and your eyes shall see and your mouth shall speak, and into Babylon you shall enter.

3 + But hear the word of [the] LORD, O king of Judah! Thus says [the] LORD to you, you shall not die by [the] broadsword. In peace you shall die, and

Jeremiah, saying, Thus said [the] LORD God of Israel, εγὼ διεθέμην διαθήκην πρὸς τοὺς πατέρας ὑμῶν ἐν I ordained a covenant with your fathers in τῇ ημέρᾳ ἣ ἐξειλάμην αὐτούς εἰς παίδας καὶ παιδίσκας. the day in which I rescued them from out of [the] land who shall be sold to you; and he shall work for you Hebrew,

And behold, they are desolate today of ones dwelling, because of [the] face

And [dripped [upon them] my anger], and my rage, and it was kindled in [the] cities of Judah, and outside Jerusalem. And they became for desolation and for an un trodden [place], as this day. And now thus said [the] LORD almighty, the God of Israel, Why do you do [evils great] against your souls? to cut off from you, man and woman, infant and one nursing, from [the] midst of Judah, to not leave behind for yourselves not one [person]; to embitter me greatly in the works of your hands, to burn incense to other gods in [the] land of Egypt, into which you entered to dwell there, that you should be cut off, and that you should become as a curse and for scorning among all the nations of the earth. Cursed is the one lifting away his sword from blood.

The one doing the work of [the] LORD indifferentily, and cursed [is] the one lifting away his sword from blood.

Moab rested from boyhood, and is relying upon his glory. He has not poured [dregs] from receptacle unto receptacle, and eis apoiikeimôn ouk ókheto diá toûto èstî and into settlement he has not set out. On account of this [ stood his taste] with him, his scent dissipated not.

On account of this, behold, days come, says [the] LORD, and I will send to him ones leaning [him down], and they shall lean him [down], and [ his vessels they shall thin out], and his horns shall break. And Moab shall be disgraced from Chemosh, as [was disgraced the house of Israel] from Beth-el their hope, having relied upon themselves. How will you say, We are strong, and [each] man strong for war. Moab is destroyed. His city and [choice] young men his] went down to slaughter, says the king -- the LORD of the forces [is] his name. Near the day of Moab to come, and his harm [quickly] moved him, all ones round about him! All seeing his name, say! O how [broken] from glory, and sit [in wetness being sat down], O daughter of Dibon! for Moab is destroyed; one ascended unto you laying waste your fortress. Upon [the] way stand and look! O one sitting down in Aroer. And ask the one fleeing and escaping! And say, What happened? Moab was disgraced, for he is broken. Shriek and cry out! Announce in Arnon! that Moab is destroyed and judgment is come unto the land of Misor, upon Holon, and upon Jahazah, and upon Mephaath, and upon Dibon, πρόσωπόν μου καὶ ἤκουσα φωνῆν λαλούντος my face, and I heard a voice speaking.

1 And he said to me, O son of man, stand upon your feet, and I shall speak to you! And came upon me a spirit. And it took me up, and lifted me away, and stood me upon my feet. And I heard him speaking to me. And he said to me, O son of man, I shall send you to the ones rebelling against me; the ones who rebelled against me. They and their fathers disregarded me, until today’s day. And I shall send you to them. And you shall say to them, Thus says the Lord: If it is so that they should hearken or be terrified, yet shall they know that a prophet you are in the midst of them. And you, O son of man, should not be afraid of them, nor be startled by their face, for they shall be heated, and shall rise up together against you round about. And [in the midst of scorpions you dwell]. You should not fear, and before their face you should not be startled, for [house it is a rebellious]. And you shall speak my words to them, for surely they shall hear or be terrified; for [house] a rebellious one it is.

O son of man, hearken to the one speaking to you! Be not rebellious as the [house rebellious]! Gape wide your mouth, and eat what is.

I give to you! And I beheld, and behold, a hand stretched out to me, and in it a roll of a scroll. And he unrolled it in my presence, and was in it [things] being written on the front and the rear; and it had written on it a lamentation, and a strain, and a woe.

And he said to me, O son of man, eat what ever you should find! Eat this roll, and go and speak to the sons of Israel! And he opened wide my mouth, and fed me this roll. And he said to me, O son of man, your mouth shall eat, and your belly shall be filled [of] this roll, of the one being given to you. And I ate it, and it became in my mouth as [honey sweet]. And he said to me, O son of man, proceed and enter to the house of Israel, and speak my words to them! For not [as] to a people

And I shall send out death and blood in your squares; and there shall fall men being wounded by swords among you, surrounding you; and they shall know that I am [the] LORD.

And there will not be any longer in the house of Israel a barb of bitterness, nor a thorn of grief from all the ones surrounding them, of the ones dishonoring them; and they shall know that I am Adonai [the] LORD. Thus says
I will gather them among the peoples, and the nations of which they were dispersed there. And I will be sanctified among them before the peoples, and the house of Israel shall dwell from out of the nations. And they shall dwell upon their land which I gave my servant Jacob. And they shall build houses, and shall plant vineyards, and they shall dwell in hope whenever I execute judgment on all the ones dishonoring them, among the ones round about them; and they shall know that I am their God, and the God of their fathers.

And [came to] me, saying, O son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel! Prophesy, and say to the shepherds! Thus says [the] Lord; O shepherds of Israel, shall [graze] the shepherds themselves? Do not [the sheep] graze the poimènes? Behold, [the milk you devour], and the wool you put around [yourselves], and the robust you slay, my sheep you do not graze. The ones being weak you strengthen not, and the ill having [a sickness] you rejuvenated not, and the broken you did not bind up, and the one wandering you did not turn back, and the lost you did not seek after, and the strong you worked in trouble. And [were scattered my sheep] on account of [there] not being shepherds; and [my sheep] became for a thing devoured by all the wild beasts of the field. And [were scattered my sheep] in every mountain, and upon every hill high; and [ upon [the face of all the earth [they were] scattered]; and there was not [one] seeking after [them], nor turning [them] back. On account of this, O shepherds, hear as I live, says [the] Lord [of the] LORD, Assuredly

On account of this, O shepherds, hear the word of [the] LORD! Thus says [the] Lord [the] LORD; Behold, I [am] against the shepherds, and I will require my sheep from out of their hands. And I will turn them away to not tend my sheep, and [shall not graze any longer the shepherds them]. And I shall rescue my sheep from out of their mouth, and they will not be themselves any longer for a thing devoured. For thus says [the] Lord [the] LORD; Behold, I shall seek after my sheep, and I shall visit them. As if [seeks the shepherd] his flock in [the] day whenever there might be dimness and cloud in [the] midst of his sheep having been parted, so shall I seek after my sheep. And I will drive them away from every place of which they were scattered.

I will lead them from out of the nations, and I will gather them from vow, I will bring them into their land, and I will graze them upon the mountains of Israel, and in the ravines, and in every dwelling of the land. [in pasture good I will graze them] on the mountain high of Israel, and [will be their havens] there. And they shall sleep there, and they shall rest in luxury. I will seek, and the one wandering I will return, and the one being broken I will bind, and the faltering I will strengthen, and the strong I will guard; and I will graze them with equity. And you, my sheep, thus says [the] Lord [the] LORD: Behold, I separate between you, my sheep, [is it] not enough to you that [the good pasture you fed on], and the rest of your pasture you trampled [with] your feet? and the place of water you drank, and the disturbed water under fed on]; and [the things trampled by your feet] you disturbed?

upon their land in a hope of peace. And they shall know

1 And it came to pass, when I turned my face to the Lord, in the midst of his fire, I heard a voice speaking unto me, saying, 2 O son of man, turn your face against mount Seir, and prophesy unto it! Thus says [the Lord] LORD; Let it be enough to you from all your lawless deeds, O house of Israel!
for you to bring in sons of foreigners, un circumcised in heart, and un circumcised in flesh, to be in my holy places, and to profane them in your offering my bread loaves, and fat, and blood; and you violated my covenant in all your lawless deeds. And you kept not the orders of my sanctuary. But you ordered to keep guards in my holy places for yourselves.
On account of this, thus says [the] LORD God; All sons of foreigners, [with an] un circumcised heart, and un circumcised shall not enter into my holy places, of all foreigners in [the] midst [of the] house of Israel. Only the Levites who hoped upon me in [ideas their own], even they shall bear their iniquities; yet they will be among my holy ones ministering and they shall slay whole burnt-offerings and the sacrifices [for] the people; and these shall stand before the people to minister to them.

Because they ministered to them before the face of Israel, and it became to the house of Israel for a punishment of iniquity. Because of this I lifted my hand against them, says [the Lord] [the LORD]. And they shall bear their lawlessness, and they shall not approach unto me to officiate as priest to me, nor to lead forward to all the holy [things] of the holies. And they shall bear their dishonor in the delusion which they wandered. And I will order them to keep [the] watches of the house for all its works, and for all as much as they should do.

The priests, the Levites, the sons of Zadok, the ones that kept watches of my holy [things] in the [wandering house of Israel] from me; these shall lead forward to me to minister to me; and they shall stand before my face to offer to me fat and blood, says [the Lord] [the LORD]. - The head and body are covered in gold, silver, and brass.
- The arms and hands are of silver and gold.
- The legs and feet are of iron, brass, and silver.
- Other body parts are made of iron, brass, silver, and gold.

Daniel 3:27 - The image is placed upon the feet of iron and is seen until completion.

Daniel 3:34 - The image is thinned out as it is struck upon the feet of iron and is lifted away as a cloud of dust. It is then lifted to a place of mountain.

Daniel 3:36 - The dream and its interpretation are told before the king.

Daniel 3:39 - The kingdom shall arise after the image has been thinned out.

Nebuchadnezzar the king made an image of gold. Its height was sixty cubits, and its breadth was six cubits. And he stationed it in the plain of Dura, in the region of Babylon.

And he sent to gather together the supreme leaders, and the commandants, and the toparchs, and the sovereigns, and the ones in authorities, and all the rulers of the regions, to come unto the dedication of dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar stationed.

And gathered together the toparchs, supreme leaders, commandants, leaders, sovereigns, great ones, the ones in authorities, and all the rulers of the regions, to the dedication of dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar stationed.

And they stood before the image which Nebuchadnezzar stationed.

[ horn another small] ascended in [the midst of them, and τρία κέρατα τῶν ἐμπρόσθεν αὐτοῦ εξερριζώθη απὸ three horns prior to it were rooted out from παλαιός θρόνος ἐκάθητο καὶ τὸ ἐνδύμα αὐτοῦ ὁσεί [the] old one of days sat down. And his garment [was] as χιών λευκόν καὶ ἡ θρίς τῆς κεφαλῆς αὐτοῦ ὁσεί snow -- white. And the hair of his head [was] as were present before him. A judgment seat was set, και βιβλοι ἡνεώχθησαν 11 + εθεώρουν τότε ἀπὸ and books were opened. I viewed then because of φωνής των λόγων των μεγάλων, ὃν το κέρας εκείνο a voice of the [ words great] which that horn spoke, until [ was done away with the wild beast], and destroyed, of life was given to them until a time and a season.

These, the [ wild beasts great four] --

And I sought exactly concerning του θηρίου του τετάρτου ὅτι ην διάφορον παρά παν the [ wild beast fourth], that was diverse from every θηρίον φοβερόν περισσώς οἱ οδόντες αὐτοῦ σιδηροί wild beast, [ fearsome extremely], its teeth of iron, καὶ οἱ όνυχες αὐτοῦ χαλκοί εσθίον καὶ λεπτύνον καὶ and its fingernails of brass; devouring, and making fine; and τα επίλοιπα τοῖς ποσίν αὐτοῦ συνεπάτει 20 + καὶ περὶ [ the rest with its feet it trampled upon]. 1 + εν έτει τρίτω της βασιλείας Βαλτάσαρ του In [year [the third] of the kingdom of Belshazzar the βασιλέως ὀρασίς ὑφθη προς με εγώ Δανιήλ μετά king, a vision appeared to me, I Daniel, after tην οφθείσαν μοι την αρχήν 2+ και ἡμὴν εν the appearing to me the beginning. And I was in Σούσοις τη βάρει η ἐστιν εν χώρα Αιλάμ και Sushan in the palace, the one which is in [the] region of Elam; and eίδον εν οράματι και ἡμὴν επί του Ουλαί 3+ και I saw in a vision, and I was upon the Ulai. And ήρα τους οφθαλμούς μου και είδον και ἰδοὺ κριός I lifted my eyes and looked. And behold, [ram eις εστηκώς προ του Οὐβαλ καὶ αυτῷ κέρατα one] standing before the Ubal; and [there was] to him horns, και τα κέρατα υψηλά καὶ το εν υψηλότερον του and the horns [were] high; and the one [was] higher than ετέρου και το υψηλόν ανέβαινεν επ` εσχάτων 4+ και and the other, and the high one ascended up last. And είδον τον κριόν καρατίζοντα κατά θάλασσαν και I beheld the ram butting towards [the] west, and βορράν καὶ νότον καὶ πάντα τα θηρία οὐ στήσονται [the] north, and [the] south; and all the wild beasts shall not stand ενώπιον αυτοῦ καὶ οὐκ ἦν ο εξαιρούμενος εκ before him, and there was no one rescuing from out of χειρὸς αυτοῦ καὶ εποίησε κατά το θέλημα αυτοῦ και his hand; and he did according to his will, and ἐμεγαλύνθη 5+ και εγὼ ἡμὴν συνιῶν καὶ ιδοὺ τράγος he was magnified. And I was perceiving. And behold, a he-goat αγών ἄρχετο ἀπὸ λιβός επ` πρόσωπον πάσης τῆς of [the] goats came from [the] face of all the γῆς καὶ οὐκ ἦν απτόμενος τῆς γῆς καὶ τω τράγῳ earth, and was not touching the earth. And to the he-goat κέρας θεωρητὸν αναμέσον των οφθαλμῶν αυτοῦ 6+ [was] a horn which may be viewed between και ἦλθεν ἐως τοῦ κριοῦ του τα κέρατα ἐχοντος And he came unto the ram, the one [the horns having], ου είδον εστώς ενώπιον του Οὐβαλ καὶ ἐδραμε which I beheld standing before the Ubal, and it ran πρὸς αὐτὸν ἐν ὀρμῇ τῆς ἰσχύος αὐτοῦ 7 καὶ εἶδον against him with [the] thrust of his strength. And I beheld αὐτὸν φθάνοντα ἐώς τοῦ κριοῦ καὶ εξηγριώθη him anticipating unto the ram, and he was furiously enraged πρὸς αὐτὸν καὶ ἐπαισε τὸν κριόν καὶ συνέτριψεν against him, and he hit the ram, and he broke ἀμφότερα τὰ κέρατα αὐτοῦ καὶ οὐκ ἦν ἰσχύς τῷ κριῷ both of his horns; and there was no strength to the ram tοῦ στήναι ἐνώπιον αὐτὸν καὶ ἔπαισεν αὐτὸν ἐπὶ to stand before him; and he tossed him upon τὴν γην καὶ συνεπάτησεν αὐτὸν καὶ οὐκ ἦν the ground, and trampled upon him, and there was not ο έξαιρούμενος τὸν κριόν εκ χειρὸς αὐτοῦ one rescuing the ram from out of his hand.
8 καὶ ο τράγος τῶν αἰγῶν εμεγαλύνθη ἐώς σφόδρα And the he-goat of the goats was magnified even unto exceedingly.
καὶ εν τῷ ἰσχύσαι αὐτὸν συνετρίβη τὸ κέρας αὐτοῦ And in his being strong [ was broken horn his tο μέγα καὶ ανέβη ἐτέρα κέρατα τέσσαρα υποκάτω the great, and ascended another [ horns four] underneath αὐτοῦ εἰς τοὺς τέσσαρας ανέμους τοῦ οὐρανοῦ 9 him unto the four winds of the heaven.
καὶ εκ τοῦ ενός αὐτῶν εξῆλθε κέρας ἐν σφυρὸν
And from out of one of them came forth [ horn one strong], καὶ εμεγαλύνθη περισσώς πρὸς τὸν νότον καὶ πρὸς and was magnified extremely towards the south, and towards tὴν ανατολήν καὶ πρὸς τὴν δύσιν 10 καὶ the east, and towards the setting of the sun. And εμεγαλύνθη ἐώς τῆς δυνάμεως τοῦ οὐρανοῦ καὶ it was magnified unto the force of the heaven; and ἐπέσεν επὶ τὴν γην ἀπὸ τῆς δυνάμεως τοῦ οὐρανοῦ it fell upon the earth from the force of heaven, καὶ ἀπὸ τῶν άστρων καὶ συνεπάτησεν αὐτὰ 11 καὶ and from the stars, and he trampled upon them. And ἐώς τοῦ αρχιστρατηγοῦ εμεγαλύνθη καὶ δι’ αὐτόν unto the commander-in-chief he was magnified, and through him θυσία ἐταράχθη καὶ τὸ ἁγιόν ἐρημωθήσεται 12 καὶ [the] sacrifice was disturbed, and the holy place shall be made desolate. And ἐδόθη ἐπὶ τὴν θυσίαν ἀμαρτία καὶ ἐρρίφη χαμαι [ was given for the sacrifice a sin [offering]], and [ was tossed onto the ground η δικαιοσύνη καὶ εποίησεν καὶ ευωδώθη 13 καὶ righteousness], and he performed and was prospered. And I heard one holy one speaking. And [said one holy one] to the Phelmouni, to the one speaking, For how long shall the vision stand, [the sacrifice the taking away], and [the sin eremwesos the dotheisa kai to thanon kai the dynameis of desolation the granting], and the holy place and the force of the goats is the [ king of the Greeks, and the [ horn great], the one [that] was in between his eyes, he is the [ king foremost]. And of the one being broken, of which [ stood four horns] underneath -- four kings from out of his nation shall rise up, and not in his strength. And at [the] last of their kingdom, being full of the sins, shall rise up a king with an impudent face, and perceiving riddles. And [is fortified his strength], and not by his strength. And wonderfully he shall corrupt, and shall prosper, and shall perform, and shall corrupt strong ones, and [ people a holy]. And the yoke of the collar shall prosper; treachery in his hand, and [ in his heart he shall magnify himself], and by treachery he shall corrupt many, and for a destruction of many he shall establish himself; and as eggs in a hand he shall break.

And the vision of the evening and of the morning of the [thing] being spoken -- it is true. And you set a seal upon the vision, for [it is] for many days! And I Daniel went to bed, and I was infirm for days. And I rose up and I did the works of the king; and I wondered at the vision, and there was no one perceiving.

1 In the first year of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of the seed of the Medes, who reigned over the kingdom of Chaldeans, in year one of his kingdom, I Daniel perceived in the books the number of the years of which became [the] word [of the] LORD to Jeremiah the prophet for a fulfillment of the desolation of Jerusalem --

2 And I put my face towards [the] LORD God, to inquire by prayer and supplication, in fasting, sackcloth, and ashes. And I prayed to [the] LORD my God, and I made acknowledgment, and I said, O LORD, the [ God great and wonderful], keeping your covenant, and the mercy to the ones loving you, and the keeping your commandments; we sinned, we did wrong, we were impious, and we left and turned aside from your commandments, and from your judgments. And we did not listen to the ones speaking in your name to our kings, and our rulers, and our fathers, and to all son of Joash king of Israel. [The] beginning of [the] word κυρίου εν Ωσηέ και είπε ο κύριος προς Ωσηέ of [the] LORD by Hosea. And [ said the LORD] to Hosea,

Proceed, take to yourself a wife of harlotry, and children

Call the name of her, Not Being Shown Mercy! for their God, and I will not deliver them by bow, nor by broadsword, nor by battle, nor by horses, nor by horsemen. And she weaned Not Being Shown Mercy. And she conceived and bore a son. And he said, Call his name, Not My People! because you [are] not my people, and I am not of you. And shall be the number of the sons of Israel as the sand of the sea in which shall not be measured out nor shall be counted out. And it will be in the place of which it was said to them, [not my people You [are]]; they shall be called, Sons of [the] living God. And shall be gathered [the] sons of Judah, and [the] sons of Israel together. And they shall appoint to themselves [sovereign one]. And they shall ascend from out of the land. For great [is] the day of Jezreel.

Speak [to] your brethren, My People, and [to] your sister, Being Shown Mercy! Plead with her, and I will lift away her harlotry from in front of me, and her adultery from between her breasts; so that I shall strip her naked.

And now I will uncover her uncleanness before her lovers, and not one shall rescue her from out of my hand. And I will turn away all her gladness of her holiday [feasts], and her new moons, and her Sabbaths, and all her festivals. And I will remove her grapevine, and her fig-trees -- as much as she said, [ my wages are] which [ gave to me my lovers]. And I will appoint them for a testimony. And [ shall devour them the wild beasts of the field], and the birds of the heaven, and the reptiles of the earth. And I will take vengeance upon her for the days of the Baals, in which she sacrificed to them, and put on her ear-rings, and her hanging necklaces, and went after her lovers; but me she forgot, says [the] LORD. On account of this, behold, I will wander her, and I will order her as desolate, and I will speak unto her heart. And I will give to her her possessions from there, and the valley of Achor.

The LORD swears an oath according to his holy [things], For behold, days come upon you when they shall take you with weapons; and the ones with you [ into kettles being fired up with fires pestilent]. And you shall be brought forth naked in front of one another, and you shall be thrown onto the mount Renmon, says [the LORD].

And they read outside [the law, and called for an acknowledgment [offering]. Announce! that these [things] loved the sons of Israel. says [the LORD]. And I withheld from you the rain before the three months of the gathering of crops; and I shall rain upon [ city one], but upon [other city one] I will not rain; [portion one] shall be rain, and [the portion upon which I shall not rain] shall be dry. And [shall be gathered together [the inhabitants of] two or three cities] to one city to drink water; and in no way shall they be filled up. And you returned not to me, in the LORD. I struck you with burning fire and with jaundice. You multiplied your gardens, your vineyards, your fig groves, your olive groves -- [devoured them] the caterpillar]. And neither thus you returned to me, says the LORD. I sent to you plague in [the way of Egypt. I killed [by the broadsword] your young men, with a captivity of your horses. And I led [by fire] your camps in your anger, and neither thus you returned to me, says [the] LORD. I eradicated you as [eradicated God] Sodom and Gomorrah, and you became as a firebrand being pulled out from burning; and neither thus you returned to me, in the LORD. On account of this, thus I will do to you, O Israel. Furthermore that thus I will do to you, you prepare to call upon your God, O Israel! For behold, [the] one stiffening thunder, and creating wind, and reporting unto men his graciousness, producing [the] dawn and fog, and mounting upon the heights of the earth -- [the] LORD God almighty [is] his name.

And the word of the LORD came to Jonah the son of Amittai, saying, "Rise up, and go unto Nineveh, that great city, and call upon me: for my wrath is kindled against it, and it shall be spoiled.

But Jonah rose up to flee into Tarshish from [the] face of [the] LORD. And he went down into Joppa. And he found a boat going to Tarshish, and he gave his fare, and ascended into it to sail with them unto Tarshish.

And the LORD raised up a wind upon the sea; and there became a great swell in the sea, and the boat was exposed to danger of breaking up.

And the mariners feared, and yelled out each to his god, and drew near each to his god.

But Jonah went down into the hold of the boat, and he went to sleep, and snored.

And the LORD drew near him, and said to him, Why do you snore? Rise up, call upon your God! so that God should preserve us, and in no way should we be destroyed.

Come each, and call upon me: for my wrath is kindled against it, and it shall be spoiled.

And now, thus says the LORD almighty, Arrange your hearts for your journeys! You sowed much, and carried in little; you ate and you clothed yourselves, and were not heated by these; and the one of the ones gathered [them] in a bundle having holes being made [in it]. Thus says the LORD almighty, Establish your hearts for your journeys! Ascend into the mountain, and cut wood! and you shall build the

The LORD responded to the angel, the one speaking with me; thus says [the] LORD: I am jealous [for] Jerusalem, and [for] Zion [ zeal with great]. And with great anger I am provoked by the nations, the ones joining in making an attack; because I indeed was provoked to anger a little, but they joined in making an attack for evils.
